DOING THE SAME OLD TRICKS AGAIN.

Despite the warnings, fines, the employment of a special motorcycle cop to report and prevent such things, the speed demons have been up to their old tricks on the streets of Paris. Special Motorcycle Policeman Fields has done his work well, and has thrown a scare into the speeders that will be hard for them to overcome, but there still remains a few foolhardy ones who think themselves above the law.

Just a little warning to these! The law is bound to get you sooner or later. Be advised in time! When the authorities get after you there will be something for you to regret afterward.

"No man liveth unto himself," but you would think some of them did, judging by the noise some of these motorists make. There is no more sense in running along the streets of this city with a cut-out wide open than there is in permitting a dog to bark all day long, yet it is done. Choke off the cut-out and let us live in a less noisy and nerve-racking environment. It's only thoughtlessness on the part of the motorists, but it spells discomfort and annoyance to others. A word to the wise should be sufficient—but it will not avail much with the arrogant, bull-headed and all-sufficient wise guy who thinks he has a perfect right to do as he pleases, city or no city, ordinance or no ordinance, law or no law.

A check for $7.50 was received by Mayor E. B. January from Darius Berlin, of Trinity, Ky., who was placed under arrest by Motorcycle Policeman Fields on a charge of violating the speed and traffic laws a few days ago. The check was accompanied by a letter of apology.

LITTLE ROCK GRADED SCHOOL.

The Little Rock Graded and High School opened yesterday with an increased attendance, with the following faculty in charge: Prof. B. M. Roberts, principal; Miss Princie Gaines, assistant in High School; Miss Ada Bivin, intermediate grades; Mrs. Charles Prather, primary grades; Miss Patsy Clark, vocal and instrumental music and expression.

ALLEGED CHECK WORKER TAKEN TO OWINGSVILLE.

When a young man wearing an overseas uniform entered the grocery store of Baldwin Bros. to make inquiries as to the whereabouts of Luther Leggett, of Millersburg, Mr. Boone Baldwin recognized him as a young man for whom he cashed a check several months ago. The check which bore the purported signature of Luther Leggett was pronounced forgery by Mr. Leggett.

Mr. Baldwin detained the young man, who gave the name of Lee Clark, of Winchester, and summoned Patrolman Lusk, who took him to jail. Clark admitted passing the check, but claimed it had been given to him by Mr. Leggett. He had recently returned from overseas, where he served about six months.

Clark was later released from custody. Mr. Leggett, whose name was signed to the check, having made good the amount to Baldwin Bros. Clark was immediately placed under arrest by officers from Owingsville, on warrants charging him with petit larceny, forgery, and selling liquor in local option territory. He was taken to Owingsville, Saturday morning, to answer to the charges against him.

CLOCK REPAIRER ROBBED OF $239 SAVINGS.

Newton Sanders, living at the corner of Tenth and Pleasant streets, reported to the police the loss of $239, which he says was taken from his room while he was asleep.

Sanders is a clock repairer by occupation. The stolen money represented the savings of several months, and was derived from hundreds of small jobs for his patrons throughout the city and county. He was unable to account for the loss of the money, which he says, was in his trousers pockets on a chair in his room.

PARIS WOMAN'S QUICK-ACTION SAVES SHIP.

Mr. and Mrs. Brinch Meinertz, of Paris, who have been in Denmark for a month of more visiting relatives of the former, are expected home to-day. They arrived at New York, Sunday, on the steamer, Oscar II, from Copenhagen, after an uneventful voyage.

In connection with their honeymoon trip across the ocean the daily papers carry an interesting story of how Mrs. Meinertz, quick eye and quick action saved the Oscar II from destruction. The story as telegraphed from New York under date of Sept. 14, reads as follows:

"British science and letters, American ingenuity, Russian Anti-Bolshevist fortitude, and feminine quick wit were well represented among the passengers who arrived here to-day on board the American line steamship Oscar II from Copenhagen. So filled was the vessel's first cabin that many persons of prominence were compelled to accept second-class accommodations in order to make the voyage. Labor troubles, both in Denmark and later in the port of Newcastle, England, dragged a voyage that would ordinarily have taken eleven days into one of nineteen days. Pleasant weather, however, made up for the length of the journey and the four hundred and some odd cabin voyagers were in good humor when they reached Hoboken pier this morning.

"If it had not been for the quick eye of Mrs. Brinch Meinertz, who, before her marriage, was Miss Corinne Elizabeth Collins, of Paris, Ky., the Oscar would have struck a mine on June 19. Mr. and Mrs. Meinertz had left New York on board the Oscar on a delayed honeymoon to the old home of the husband in Denmark ten days before. Mr. Meinertz came to the United States some years ago and established himself in business in Paris, Kentucky, and was married there.

"The couple were standing directly under the bridge on the evening of June 29, when Mrs. Meinertz saw something peculiar glistening on the moonlit sea. She called her husband's attention to it and then, mindful of the stories of floating mines that she had heard spoken of on board the night before, she immediately called the officer on the navigation bridge to the glistening object.

"There was an almost instantaneous sounding of gongs in the engine room and the bridge near the signal levers and the big Scandinavian-American steamship seemed to lay over almost on her side as she swung out of her course.

"The glistening object was seen to drift by within fewer than a dozen feet to spare between it and the side of the steamship, and Captain Schmidt afterwards told Mrs. Meinertz that they had narrowly escaped striking a mine. Twenty-four hours later they encountered another mine and five subsequent mines of destruction were met with before the Oscar II reached Copenhagen."

FANCY CATTLE SOLD AT THE STATE FAIR.

The steer exhibit by Kenneth Caldwell, 12-years-old, of Paris, which won the grand championship in the steer class for fatted cattle at the Kentucky State Fair, was sold for the fancy price of 45 cents a pound. The steers weighed 1,200 pounds and netted the boy $540.

Other sales of fancy fatted cattle were made to packers at prices ranging from 19.10 to 20 cents per pounds. H. L. Igelhart, of Elizabethtown, acted as auctioneer.

A car lot of fancy cattle, comprising fifteen head, shown by Henry S. Caywood, of North Middletown, which won first prize in the car lot exhibit, was sold to Swift & Company, for 20 cents. The cattle weighed approximately 21,000 pounds.

A car lot of fifteen head, shown by James Caldwell, father of Kenneth Caldwell, and which took second prize, brought 19 1/2 cents per pound.

A car lot of third prize winners, exhibited by J. G. Gays, of Vine Grove, was bought by the Nagle Provision Company for 19.10 cents per pound. This bunch of cattle was bred and raised in Kentucky of Kentucky stock.

TEACHERS' INSTITUTE 'THANKS'

Before closing its sessions, which were held at the Bourbon County Y. M. C. A. gymnasium, in this city, last week, the Bourbon County Teachers' Institute adopted a series of resolutions. These resolutions thanked the management of the "Y" for the use of the building; Prof. Chas. A. Keith, of the Eastern Kentucky Normal School at Richmond, for his series of lectures; advising better preparation of teachers for obtaining University and Normal School instruction and teaching a broader Americanism and more ardent patriotism; declaring for a higher salary for teachers to meet increasing cost of living, and advising teachers to form an auxiliary of the Red Cross, and to aid in stamping out illiteracy in the county.

ACTION OF THE BOARD OF CONTROL OF THE W. W. MASSIE MEMORIAL HOSPITAL.

We, the members of the W. W. Massie Memorial Hospital Board and associates, realizing the impression being made by the investigation of the Hospital, which is now in progress, feel that it is due the public and those in management of the Hospital, that the following statements be made:

First—The board of Control, having been in close touch with the management of the Hospital from its beginning, has endeavored to conduct the Hospital, handicapped as it has been for funds, so as to best meet the requirements of the patient admitted and the need of the city and county.

Second—All complaints, when properly presented to the Board, have been given fair and just consideration.

Third—In Miss Boehm, who has been our Superintendent since its beginning, the Massie Memorial Hospital has been extremely fortunate. While she has had the unqualified support of the Board of Control, it is to her untiring efforts, her high standards of Hospital efficiency and morality, that the Massie Memorial Hospital is conceded by those familiar with such institutions to be one of the best equipped and best conducted Hospitals in the State.

Fourth—The members of the Board of Control can not too heartily commend and approve the high standard of efficiency of the present administration and assure the public that in the future the Hospital will be conducted on the same plane as heretofore.

SUNDAY AUTO ACCIDENTS

A narrow escape from serious injury was made Sunday afternoon near Boonesboro, when a machine in which three Paris boys were riding, went over a fifteen foot embankment, and was wrecked. The young men, Roy Jones, Noah Gaunce and William Bell, had gone to Boonesboro on a Sunday afternoon joyride, but finding no especially alluring attractions there, turned back en route home. A short distance out from Boonesboro, the driver lost control of the machine, which swerved from the road, and plunged backward over the steep embankment. Jones saw the impending danger in time to jump, thereby escaping injury. Gaunce and Bell were carried down in the machine, which struck the side of the embankment and turned turtle, throwing the occupants out. Gaunce sustained a slight cut and severe bruises and Bell was also slightly bruised. The machine was completely wrecked. The boys secured passage on a passing machine, and were taken to Winchester, from where they returned to Paris in a machine.

A machine belonging to Mr. John Clay, in which Mr. Forrest Letton, Jr., and three companions were riding on the Lexington pike, near Paris, Sunday afternoon, crashed into a telephone pole when the steering gear became jammed. The machine veered off after striking the pole, and ran across the interurban tracks, when the engine "died." Mr. Letton sustained slight cuts and bruises about the face. The others were uninjured, but received a severe shaking up. The machine was considerably damaged.

A car lot of fifteen head, shown by James Caldwell, father of Kenneth Caldwell, and which took second prize, brought 19 1/2 cents per pound.

A car lot of third prize winners, exhibited by J. G. Gays, of Vine Grove, was bought by the Nagle Provision Company for 19.10 cents per pound. This bunch of cattle was bred and raised in Kentucky of Kentucky stock.

BOURBON HORSES.

Lady Beautiful, a most appropriately named mare, owned by B. S. Castles, of New York City, and driven by A. G. Jones, of North Middletown, won the fine harness stake at the Kentucky State Fair Hippodrome Friday night over the best field assembled. A slight mix-up between a couple of the entries in the early stages of the showing threatened disaster for a moment, but no serious injuries resulted.

For the other features of the program, the three-gaited saddle horse champion brought out another wonderful field of eight of the finest of their kind to be seen in many seasons. Two of the contestants bore lady riders, each of whom showed her mount with rare skill.

Both of these classes were judged by J. Miller Ward, of Paris.

GREAT PACING EVENT.

COUNCIL REFUSES TO ACCEPT SANITARY SEWER.

At the recent meeting of the Paris City Council, City Engineer A. H. Boehner, who recently completed an inspection of the new trunk line sewer, finished, reported that he had found it in bad condition in several places, and that it would cost from $5,000 to $6,000 to make the necessary repairs. The sewer had just been completed by Contractor A. D. Sant at a cost of $20,000. Contractor Sant put in a counter claim for $6,000 against the city as an underestimate of the cost of constructing the sewer, as excavations had to be made through hard bed rock. He claimed this unforeseen obstacle caused him to be behind on his contract several months and that he had lost money on it.

An ordinance for the construction of concrete on Fifth avenue was given a second reading and passed. The Council declined to accept the resignations of Mrs. A. T. Forsyth and Mrs. Wade H. Whitley, members of the committee to investigate the management of the Massie Memorial Hospital. The Finance Committee appointed to audit the books of the Massie Memorial Hospital, filed a report commending the treasurer and superintendent of the institution. Mrs. Harriet Minaker, Visiting Nurse of the Bourbon County Health and Welfare League, submitted her annual report, showing $1,089.45 in the treasury. Mr. Newton Mitchell, Superintendent of the Paris Water Company, appeared before the Council and entered a protest in regard to the mill race gate at the Paris Milling Co.'s plant, which he stated was in poor condition, and not capable of holding back the water. The Improvement Committee was instructed to confer with Mr. B. M. Renick, of the Paris Milling Co., and come to a settlement of the matter.

The Western Petroleum Co. was granted a permit for the erection of an iron-clad building on Main street, between the Frankfort & Cincinnati railroad and the property of the Paris Monument Co., the cost to be about $4,000.

EXECUTORS OF ESTATE FILE FRIENDLY SUIT.

Dr. C. Bruce Smith, of Millersburg, and Silas E. Bedford, of Paris, executors of the estate of the late A. H. Smedley, who died from wounds self-inflicted in Millersburg some time ago, have filed a friendly suit in the office of Circuit Clerk W. H. Webb, asking for an interpretation of certain clauses in the deceased's will.

In the petition the executors ask the Court to interpret a paragraph in the will, which they say is doubtful as to its meaning. In Mr. Smedley's will, which was admitted to probate shortly after his death, after making a number of bequests to relatives and friends, there occurred a paragraph reading: "Should there be other money or stocks in my possession at my decease, it shall be divided between my own brothers and sisters, or their heirs, among whom are my brother John's heirs, my sister Kate, and my brother William, the last two mentioned being at present living in Chicago."

Mr. Smedley had the following brothers of full blood, Joseph Smedley, John G. Smedley, and William Smedley, one full sister, Mrs. Kate Forrester, and two half-sisters, Lucy and Mary Smedley. Since the will was drawn all his brothers and half-brothers have died, leaving heirs, Mrs. Kate Forrester, of Chicago, his sister, surviving. The executors are in doubt as to whether Mr. Smedley meant to include in the distribution of the residue of his estate the children and descendants of his half-brothers and half-sisters, and for this reason, ask the Court to pass upon this particular paragraph.

Their itinerary includes visits to Hawaii, Japan, Korea, Manchuria, China, the Philippines, Straits Settlements, Java, Burmah, India, Ceylon and France.

EDITORIAL MUSINGS.

The "Almo Idea." Almo, Kentucky, a town of 200 people, located in the western part of the State, has invited four cities much larger than itself to be present at a barbecue given by its citizens. When we consider that Paducah is one of these cities we realize the undertaking of the people of Almo and wonder how they find it worth while. The answer is found in the day's program which is to accompany the feast of good things at the barbecue. The program includes a complete discussion of the relations between the communities. Trade relations, transportation, exchange of products and, best of all, good roads are to play a part in the discussion of the day.

We believe the "Almo idea" a good one and one well worthy of imitation. There is too little of co-operation and too much of jealousy and treasuring of ancient ill-feeling between communities, towns and cities. Co-operation is one of the secrets of all business success. Better roads, more business and more comfort will result to all parties concerned in hearty inter-city co-operation.

We can well take the lesson of Almo to heart and formulate some plans to put their ideas into practice. The time, money and energy spent thereon would be repaid over and over by the increased business, better feeling and more rapid progress resulting from a hearty co-operation. We have in the surrounding counties several towns whose business and personal interests could well be brought into closer relations with ours. There would be both pleasure and profit to both parties. Let's think it over, talk it over and when the time is ripe, put it over.

MR. FARMER KNOWS A THING OR TWO.

(Detroit Free Press)

Lambasting the packers, railing at the middlemen, and excommunicating the retailer of foodstuffs is the general, if not always popular, pastime in these days of excessive cost of eating. And while all this is taking place attention is distracted from a figure standing on the side lines and alternately cheering the scrapers and turning aside to indulge in a well-warranted laugh at the manner in which he is made a beneficiary, quite unwittingly, by the warning factors. This is the producer, who in the general melee manages to get at least a portion of his share of the proceeds.

Time was when one could drive into the country and pick up a load of farm products at a material saving over what was exacted for them in town. Dwellers in urban communities were proper objects of envy on the part of less fortunate cityites. Now all is changed. The man who seeks to stretch the undersized dollar in this manner is given the opportunity of paying the farmer, at his own gate, the same price he would be asked in town. If the customer raises ever so slight a question, the daily newspaper is brought out, and the markets in the nearest big center are quoted. If the paper of that day or the one just previous is not available the telephone puts the producer in touch with dealer in town, who furnishes the current figures. There is no haggling. It is a case of take or leave, for there will be other purchasers, because the producer no longer suffers from the isolation that existed prior to the coming of the automobile, the motor truck, good roads, rural free delivery, the daily newspaper and other agencies of like value to him.

Your agriculturists can quote the market prices of the day before in every large center in his part of the country with a facility that would make a commission merchant envious. And he gets those prices. He is his own middleman and retailer when it comes to dealing with the individual.

In common with everybody else, the producer of foodstuffs is entitled to all he can get for his wares. But the facts in the case, which can easily be established by anyone who has any doubts, give rise to the belief that as against the ultimate consumer the producer is not so sorely oppressed as some of his class would have us believe. Also, the very facilities for keeping in touch with the outside world that have emancipated the agriculturist render it just that much harder for the wage-earner to make both ends meet.

FORGER CLAIMS INVENTION OF WONDERFUL DEVICE

While Grover Cleveland Jones, a self-confessed forger, is serving a three-year sentence in the penitentiary, at Jefferson City, Mo., a company of Springfield citizens will manufacture several inventions of his which he says will protect banks absolutely from burglaries and forgers.

Jones first came into the limelight when he announced he had formed a company to manufacture and market an invention he has perfected for the protection of banks against burglaries.

The newest device that he has evolved is designed to protect banking houses and other similar institutions from swindlers. The contrivance is a secret machine for taking photographs and finger prints of suspects who may present bogus paper at a bank window for payment. The machine operates at the will of the bank officials, but its operation is totally unknown to the suspect, who, according to Jones, can be photographed and fingerprinted without his knowledge.

"I am going to prove to the world that I have an invention of real merit," said Jones. "As I am under a three-years' sentence I shall have to trust my invention to my partners, but when my time expires I shall return to Springfield, where both machines are to be manufactured. I expect to show to the world that I can only invent, but that I can live straight."

Dependability.

The ability to be dependable gathers up all the flowers of virtue in the human soul and brings their essence into daily use. It turns the watchdog into a spiritual companion, and paints the most humble heart with lines of beauty.

Willie Clinger says that the reason she left her last boarding place was because the floors were so shaky she couldn't chew gum without jarring the house.

WAR SAVINGS STAMP CAMPAIGN FOR SEPTEMBER.

The Savings Division, War Loan Organization of Kentucky, has launched a campaign for September throughout the State for the sale of $125,000 Treasury Savings Certificates. This is the quota that the Eighth Federal Reserve District of the Treasury Department has allotted to Kentucky, and Savings officials hope to do even better with this allotment than they did with the one given them for the last two weeks of August.

The report of the sale of the Treasury Certificates shows that the public is beginning to see the great value that can be obtained from the purchase of these Government Securities. During the last two weeks of August the Treasury Department asked Kentucky to sell $66,000 in Treasury Certificates. The result was that the State went far ahead of the set quota selling $114,600 in the Securities.

Inquiries received by the Savings Division, of the War Savings Stamps in the State offices in the Columbia Building, Louisville, show that prospective buyers are keenly interested in the offer made by the Government.

These Treasury Savings Certificates are issued in denominations of $100 maturity value, and $1,000 and can be bought at any postoffice, incorporated banks or trust companies who are qualified agents of the second class for the sale of War Savings Stamps, series of 1919. The Certificates are issued in registered form only. They bear interest at 4% per annum compounded quarterly and mature January 1, 1924. They are redeemable prior to maturity after ten days' written demand and surrender of the Certificates to the office of the Secretary of the Treasury.

War Savings Certificates filled with twenty War Saving Stamps, series of 1919, may be exchanged for Treasury Savings Certificates in the denomination of $100 and ten such War Savings Certificates may be exchanged for Treasury Savings Certificates in the denomination of $1,000.

Representatives of the Savings Division of Kentucky are now calling on the limit members of the State asking them to grasp the unusual opportunity and buy Savings Certificates. Reports received show they are getting good results.

This quota does not include the ordinary sale of War Savings Stamps and the indications point to the State having a big sale of Certificates.

BOON'S ILL FORTUNE.

"With Kentucky won Boone found that by one of the twists of law, the plot of ground he thought was his was not his at all," says William Heyliger in concluding an article on "Daniel Boone" in Boys' Life, the official magazine of the Boy Scout organization. "Almost like a penniless outcast he moved to Virginia, but when fresh tales came to him of land to the west of the Mississippi, then called Louisiana, his sixty-one years did not deter him from risking a fresh start. In 1795 he established himself near the present city of St. Louis and took what he thought was a deed to land; but in 1803, when this territory passed from Spain to the United States, he found this claim worthless.

"But now the American people were awakening to a realization of what Boone's leadership in Kentucky had meant to the nation. Congress granted him 850 acres of land. There in the West, free from want, he passed his last days. Twenty-five years after his death, his remains were brought back to Kentucky. And in the land he gave to civilization, he sleeps, this man who carried the torch of civilization among a savage people and bared his chest to the shock of battle that its flame might not be extinguished."

"IT MUST HAVE BEEN DEAD AT LEAST 6 MONTHS BUT DIDN'T SMELL."

"Saw a big rat in our cellar last Fall," writes Mrs. Joanny, "and bought a 25c cake of RAT-SNAP, broke it up into small pieces. Last week while moving we came across the dead rat. Must have been dead six months, didn't smell. RAT-SNAP is wonderful." Three sizes—25c, 50c, $1.00. Sold and guaranteed by the Farmers Supply Co.

FRANKFORT MAN HAS REMARKABLE VEGETABLE WONDER

M. D. Coyle has growing in his garden on Clinton street, in Frankfort, a curiosity in the way of a vegetable, and a stranger in these parts. It is an Australian butter bean, or gigantic New Guinea butter bean. The vine is some forty or fifty feet in length and the beans it is bearing run from six inches to two or three feet in length and weigh from one to fifteen pounds. The beans are to be cooked like an egg plant and one will furnish a meal for a whole family. Mr. Coyle sent to California for the seed and they sent him six for a half dollar. Should this variety of bean become popular as a diet a good sized trellis will be necessary to accommodate the vines.

BAPTISTS REVERT TO OLD CUS-TOM.

It's old-fashioned to pray, did you say?

Well then the 3,000,000 Baptists in the South plead guilty to the charge of being old-fashioned for they believe in prayer—prayer in the churches, prayer around the family altar, and prayer in the places of secret devotion.

Not all of them have fully practiced their belief as to prayer all the time, heretofore, but prominent on the program of the Baptist 75 Million Campaign for September is the place given to prayer. This month has been designated as Intercession Month and through September and the remainder of the campaign as well, every Southern Baptist is urged to devote much time to earnest communion with God as a preparation for the work that will need to be done to put the campaign over.

While September 24 has been designated as a day of special prayer and practical fasting throughout the Southern States the people are asked to begin praying in earnest before that time and continue doing so afterward in order that they may be able to ascertain God's will for them in this campaign and then obey that will fully.

Time was when it was popularly considered proper to commune with God at regular intervals.

The restoration of prayer to a prominent place in the lives of Baptists and Christians generally is one of the by-products which those identified with this campaign hope will result from it.

TOBACCO MEN ORGANIZE TO FIGHT TOBACCO CRUSADE

Tobacco growers and buyers of Northern Kentucky plan action to combat the crusade against tobacco by the Anti-Tobacco League.

W. D. Spalding, of Covington, a tobacco merchant, who called a meeting of tobacco men, on Monday, September 8, said the tobacco men intend to organize without further delay and fight the efforts of those behind the anti-tobacco movement.

Growers, dealers, buyers and bankers are interested in the plan to prevent disaster to the tobacco trade, Mr. Spalding declared.

Emmet Orr, formerly Deputy U. S. Marshal, is making a tour of the fifty-four Kentucky counties which raise tobacco in the interest of tobacco merchants.

Tobacco men, in planning their organization, point to the bill introduced in the last session of the General Assembly of Georgia to prohibit the use of tobacco in that State and the legislation against cigarettes in a number of States.

RETAIL GROCERS ORDERED TO BEGIN CUTTING PRICES

What was virtually an ultimatum was given by officials of the Kentucky High Cost of Living Committee, Saturday, to retail grocers, ordering them to begin slashing prices under penalty of being exposed as profiteers. When the commission published a list of fair prices a few days ago the retailers' defense was that wholesale prices in Louisville kept retail prices up. The commission forthwith investigated and found that wholesale prices were approximately the same in Louisville as in New York City, where retail prices are 15 per cent. lower, despite heavier overhead expenses. Independent grocers outside the Retail Grocers' Association are now preparing a fair price list, at the request of the commission.

ANTI-TOBACCO CAMPAIGN NOW

The Cynthiana Democrat has the following, which is an indication of what the "world reformers" are liable to do soon:

"The State W. C. T. U. has opened a campaign against tobacco, cigarettes the first objective. The campaign for the present will be confined to education, but the next Legislature will be asked to pass a bill prohibiting the manufacture and sale of cigarettes. Should this succeed, the next step will doubtless be the elimination of cigars and chewing tobacco, then the planting and sale of the weed. Think this is a pipe dream? That's what you thought about prohibition of intoxicating liquors. If the people of Kentucky want to save tobacco, they must "show" the politicians, and lose no time about it."

In the Leesburg correspondence of The Democrat is the following, which fits in with the above:

"Most of us voted dry and we are getting it 'hot off the stick,' are we not?"

ABSENT VOTERS MAY VOTE FOR GOVERNOR.

For the first time in the November election absent voters may vote in Kentucky for Governor. Heretofore ballots have been prepared by county clerks ten days before the election. In order to take care of the absent voters this work must now be done thirty days before the election.

GOVERNOR BLACK ENDORSES MEMORIAL BUILDING IDEA

Governor Black has given his endorsement of the proposal to erect on the campus of the University of Kentucky, a Kentucky Memorial Building, as a tribute to the Kentuckians who gave their lives in the war with Germany. The Governor has written to Campaign Manager W. E. Freeman, at Lexington, a letter expressing his approval of the idea in which he says:

"Frankfort, August 18, 1919.
Kentucky Memorial Building,
Lexington, Kentucky.

"My Dear Sir:—I have your recent letter containing reference to a proposed building to be erected on the campus of the University of Kentucky, as a memorial to the Kentuckians who joined the fighting forces of our country in the late great war.

"The idea is a happy one; the location for the memorial is ideal. No country ever sent to war a soldier of more intrepid courage, an army of more startling and valiant manhood than that which lately gave testimony of ready and unselfish loyalty to the Stars and Stripes, and Kentucky should be doubly proud of her contribution to that just and righteous cause.</p

SCHOOLS TO CELEBRATE NATIONAL CONSTITUTION DAY

The celebration of September 17 as National Constitution Day in city and county schools throughout the State is urged in letters sent out by J. Virgil Chapman, member for Kentucky of the National Security League. The campaign against un-American radicalism was begun several weeks ago by the league in association with other leading patriotic associations of the country.

Superintendent J. W. Ireland, of Frankfort, who was named chairman of the city superintendents in the Seventh Congressional District, and E. S. Land, of Irvine, chairman of county superintendents, will aid Mr. Chapman in having school children get an appreciation of the constitution as an antidote for the menace of radicalism.

Lawyers, ministers and men accustomed to public speaking are asked to volunteer to county or city superintendents for service, and bulletins containing suggestions for programs of observance of Constitution Day have been sent out from headquarters.

Each city and town in the State is asked to observe the day in addition to the celebrations which it is proposed to have in the school. Suggestions for exercises and speakers will be furnished by representatives of the league, and patriotic societies will co-operate.

SUMMING UP THE EVIDENCE.

Many Paris People Have Been Called As Witnesses.

Week after week has been published the testimony of Paris people—kidney sufferers—backache victims—people who have endured many forms of kidney, bladder or urinary disorders. These witnesses have used Doan's Kidney Pills. All have given their enthusiastic approval. It's the same everywhere. 50,000 American men and women are publicly recommending Doan's—always in the home papers. Isn't it a wonderful, convincing mass of proof? If you are a sufferer your verdict must be "Try Doan's first."

Here's one more Paris case.

Wm. W. Dudley, 1729 Cypress St., says: "Some years ago I found it necessary to use a kidney remedy and as I had read about Doan's Kidney Pills, I used them. They proved to be satisfactory and permanently rid me of the complaint. I have good reason to recommend Doan's Kidney Pills and advise their use to anyone troubled with a weak and lame back or irregular passages of the kidney secretions."

Price 60c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Dudley had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y. (adv)

"UNCLE BILL" SCHOOLER ON THE ANXIOUS SEAT.

"Uncle Bill" Schooler, now editor and publisher of the Commonwealth, a weekly paper published at Somerset, Ky., frankly tells his readers in a recent issue that he is undecided whether to continue the harassed existence of a country publisher or take to the open road as a common tramp. His conclusions are set down in an editorial in which he tells an "unappreciative public" that if he never writes another line for his paper they can draw their own conclusions as to what happened. Regarding a tramp he met on the "open highway," he writes:

"The price of gasoline has no terror for him. He doesn't have to take a bath unless he wants to. He can be his own lazy, independent self, while we must keep up the eternal bluff."

MILL FEED PRICE RISES TO BOOST H. C. L.

An increase in the price of eggs, butter and milk is presaged by the twenty-five cent increase in the price of mill feed, which took effect Saturday, according to a prominent farmer in this section. Corn and wheat feed is now selling at $3 on the hundred pounds, and is the cheapest feed available for chickens and stock, he said.

The fact that the principal food for dairy stock now costs $60 a ton, which could once be bought for $15, is certain to raise the price of milk and butter, he said. Last year mill feed could be bought for $1.35; it was later increased to $1.80, and for a time before the increase of Saturday sold for $2.75.

Unless there is a very late autumn season, very good rains will not save the crops, in the opinion of farmers, who see more and more "hard times" for themselves in the increasing expense of stock feed.

BOURBON TEACHERS' INSTITUTE CLOSES BUSY SESSION.

The annual meeting of the Bourbon County Teachers' Institute convened Monday morning, Sept. 8, at the Y. M. C. A. gymnasium, and continued until Friday afternoon.

The Institute was ably conducted by Prof. C. A. Keith, a young educator of pleasing personality and splendid attainments. He is a Rhodes scholarship man and a graduate of Oxford University, England.

At present he is an instructor at the Richmond Normal School, and has been conducting institutes during vacation, this being the eleventh.

The attendance upon the opening day was good and was maintained during all the sessions, interest never flagging for one hour.

At the first session, the devotional exercises were conducted by Mr. C. B. Harrison, secretary of the Y. M. C. A.

Mrs. Orpha Scott Bell was chosen secretary, and the following committees were appointed:

Resolutions—C. R. Bush, Miss Mabel Wasson, Mrs. Boston, Miss Isabel Merrimee and Miss Nora Houston.

Program—B. M. Roberts, Misses Nannie Clarke and Elizabeth Donnell.

Music—Mrs. Boston, Misses Mildred Bruce and Mary Ellett.

After the organization had been effected, Prof. Keith addressed the teachers on, "Our Opportunity and Responsibility in the Great Work of Reconstruction."

At the afternoon session, Miss Dalton, representing the Southern School Journal, was introduced, and spoke to the teachers on "The Management of Children, and after an intermission, she again spoke on the "Do and Don't qualities of children. Tuesday morning the exercises were opened with a musical program conducted by Mrs. Boston and Miss Bruce, both of Millersburg. Prof. B. M. Roberts, Principal of the Graded School at Little Rock, led the devotional exercises.

Mr. Chas. P. Weaver, of Louisville, a former prominent club woman and President of the State Federation of Women's Clubs, now representing the Kentucky Children's Home, made a strong appeal for a square deal for each child in Kentucky." Prof. Keith then addressed the teachers on "Environment and Heredity."

At the afternoon session, Miss Martha Rogers, of Detroit, and Mr. A. L. Boatright gave musical selections.

Mr. Johnson gave a talk on the "Easy Road to Reading," followed by a discussion on the subject of Reading.

Wednesday morning, Mrs. Washington, of Louisville, made a strong plea for the eradication of illiteracy in Kentucky, presenting the good accomplished by the Moonlight Schools originated by Mrs. Cora Wilson Stuart.

Prof. Elliott, representing the publishing company of Ginn & Co., addressed the teachers, making a comparison between the educational systems of Indiana and Kentucky.

Prof. Roberts followed with a short talk on "Culture," and Prof. Keith gave his morning talk along practical lines.

Mr. Harrison, the "Y" Secretary, gave a demonstration of games suitable for school playgrounds.

On Thursday morning Prof. Keith made a fine address, which was replete with good suggestions and practical thoughts. During his talk he proposed the organization of a County Federation of Schools, following the example of a number of other counties.

Mr. Sugg, a representative of the Rand-McNally Publishing Company, was the next speaker. He was followed by Miss Olivia Orr, of Paris, Chairman of the Junior Red Cross work, who presented her work and recommended an auxiliary in each school district.

Mr. Lally, a visiting examiner, Mr. Gheres, representing the John Winston Readers, and Mr. O'Daniel, representing the Child World Readers, each addressed the teachers.

Thursday afternoon, Miss Dalton spoke again on the Illiteracy Campaign, urging the help and co-operation of the teachers.

Friday morning, Prof. Keith presented a suitable constitution for the proposed Federation. The teachers voted unanimously to organize a Federation, the object being to bring the teachers and all interested in educational work into a closer union.

The Institute adjourned Friday afternoon after a most pleasant and profitable session.

Mrs. Eva Adams, Miss Alice Bell, Miss Marlett Bell, Mrs. Oprah S. Bell, Miss Louise Benthal, Miss Ada Bivins, Mrs. Mary S. Boston, Mrs. J. A. Bowles, Miss Mildred Bruce, Mrs. Frank P. —Glen Iris, the attractive home of Mrs. John Stuart Roberts, was the scene of a brilliant social gathering on Thursday afternoon. Invitations had been issued to more than two hundred friends in this and the neighboring counties, and judging from the number present very few regrets were received. Mrs. Roberts and her lovely young daughter, Miss Margaret Ferguson, received their friends in the handsome drawing room on the right of the long hall into which it opened with large French doors. Standing with Mrs. Roberts and Miss Ferguson were Mrs. C. G. Daugherty, Mrs. Thompson Tarr, Mrs. James Thompson, Jr., and Mrs. Henry Judy, all in handsome afternoon gowns. Mrs. Frederick Wallis, Miss McGowan, of New York, Mrs. Duncan Bell, Miss Kate Alexander, Miss Mamie Holliday, Mrs. Frank Clay, Mrs. Edw. Prichard and Miss Ollie Butler assisted Mrs. Roberts in entertaining the guests, while Miss Irene Butler, and Miss Julia Butler, of Atlanta, Ga., presided at the punch table. The dining room has been newly decorated, and shows Mrs. Roberts' exquisite taste in every line, as does the entire house. The flowers in the dining-room were deep pink roses, and the table held a superb silver basket filled with the same flower. The guests were served a tempting plate of fruit salad, beaten biscuit, a cup of creamed chicken, sandwiches of all kinds, a water ice and mint and nuts. All during the afternoon an orchestra delighted those present with a choice program of modern music, but occasionally an old favorite would creep in, and "Mlle Modiste" and "The Golden Buttercup" called forth many exclamations of pleasure.

—From three until six there was a steady stream of automobiles coming and going, and only the lengthening shadows warned the late comers that all good times must come to an end. Mrs. Roberts had guests from Georgetown, Lexington, Winchester and Frankfort, as well as Paris. Thus is another star added to Bourbon's crown of social success.

LUKE McLUKE FORMING "JAG BUG SYNDICATE

(Luke McLuke, in Cincinnati Enquirer)

The Jag Bug Syndicate is now in process of formation and you should get in on the ground floor while shares are to be had. This is the greatest money-making plan ever conceived, and our shareholders will all be millionaires within a few months. The Jag Bug is an insect found in Curacao. The bite of this insect has a peculiar effect on the human system. It produces the same effect as a drink of whisky. A half dozen bites affords a nice gentlebun. There is nothing in the Prohibition law prohibiting the importation or use of the Jag Bug. This syndicate will ship a load of Jag Bugs to this country and breed the Jag Bugs for selling purposes. It will cost ten cents to export a healthy pair of Jag Bugs to this country and breed them. The offspring will bring any price we demand, say $10 each. Any man with $10 can buy a Jag Bug and let the insect bite him when he gets up in the morning. The effect is the same as an "eye-opener." Before dinner he can let the Jag Bug bite him, and the effect will be the same as a cocktail. Any time the man needs a little pep he can let his Jag Bug take a bite. And, if he desires a mild jag, he can let the Jag Bug bite him several times. Think of the possibilities! The Jag Bug has solved the Prohibition Problem! Every household will have a Jag Bug! What is home without a Jag Bug? An empty cellar will have no terrors with a Jag Bug on the premises. Buy your stock now before it is too late! Stock is now selling at $100 a share! It will soon be worth $100,000 a share! Opportunity is knocking! Open the door and the way to fortune! Buy stock now!

MAYBE THIS WILL HIT PARIS SOON.

Broadway, New York, has been hit by a new plague—prohibition hives. Doctors blame them on prohibition, claiming excess of citrus acid in lemonade is no doubt responsible. In the old days men slaked their thirst on hot day with beer, a julep or a long Tom Collins—now they drink lemonade. As a result it is not unusual to see some dignified gentleman suddenly stop, back up against a post and do a setting up exercise. One effect of the late war that made the world safe for the late democracy was to train our young American manhood to scratch. Now the old and young are scratching on Broadway. A hive victim dashed into the foyer of a hotel the other day, grabbed a cactus plant and ran out scratching his back with it. And you can see a thousand Broadwayites any day standing with one arm across their chest in a Napoleonic fashion. Gather up closely and one finds they are scratching.

REAL PROSPERITY.

Real prosperity consists in producing an abundance for everybody and making good use of it. To consume it all would be extravagance. To consume a reasonable amount and save the rest so as to accumulate capital to employ people and so increase their comfort would be the best possible use of the resources at our command.

This is the meaning of the Thrift program which the Government has inaugurated and of the organization of Savings Societies throughout the country.

It is said to be a fact that after all great wars there is a period of extravagance at the very time when there is the great need for industry and economy to repair the frightful losses caused by the war. The Government is trying to overcome this tendency by the organization of Savings Societies.

At the same time it has started through the Department of Labor to encourage home owning and home building. This is an important form of Thrift. To accumulate the "nest egg" for a home building fund or for any other good purpose, there is no medium of accumulation so convenient as the War Savings Stamp, which increases in value each month.

The old-fashioned provident man who didn't depend on the packers for his meat now has a son who looks to somebody else for everything.

CENSUS SUPERVISOR TO LOCATE IN LEXINGTON.

Joe Morris, recent secretary to Congressman J. Campbell Cantrell, who has been appointed supervisor of the census for the Seventh Congressional district, will have headquarters on the second floor of the government building, at Lexington, in rooms occupied by officials of the Seventh Internal Revenue District until August 25.

Mr. Morris wrote Postmaster Moses Kaufman, custodian of the building, recently, that he would prefer to have his headquarters in Lexington.

Postmaster Kaufman immediately offered him three rooms in the building. Mr. Morris will spend the greater part of his time at his headquarters, and will send out his clerks to the various counties in the district. He expects to take up his residence in Lexington very soon if the offer of Postmaster Kaufman is approved by census officials at Washington.

REAL ESTATE TRANSACTIONS.

The six-room cottage on Pleasant street, belonging to Mr. Wm. S. Dale of Harris & Dale, was sold at public auction, Saturday, by the real estate firm of Harris & Speakes. The cottage was purchased by Mr. Louis Wollstein for $2,525.

Mr. Fayette Ardery has sold his home on Houston avenue, to Mr. and Mrs. Watson Judy, at a price not reported. Possession will be given on March 1, 1920, when the purchasers will move to the Shipp property in South Paris, which they purchased some time ago.

The farm, containing 207 acres, was purchased by John W. Dawson, of Spencer county, for $240 an acre, or a total of $50,000. Mr. Whaley bought the farm about a year ago from John T. Hedges, of Paris, for $200 an acre. The purchaser will be given possession on March 1, 1920.

ONE SUSPECT ARRESTED IN ROBBERY CASE.

One of the suspects, a one-armed man, who is suspected of having been implicated in the robbery of the Mitchell & Blakemore clothing store in this city, last Wednesday night, is being held by the police of Covington, where he was arrested last Friday. He will probably be turned over to the Paris authorities in a few days. Beyond this there has been nothing new developed in the case.

Chief of Police Link and Mr. Wallace Mitchell, of the firm of Mitchell & Blakemore, returned from Louisville, where they got on the trail of some of the stolen goods. They brought with them three suit cases which were taken from the store by the burglars. The suit cases were packed to their fullest capacity with suits of clothes, stick pins, collar buttons, cuff buttons, shoes, the whole totalling over $300 in value. The goods had been checked out of Latonia to Louisville, but the burglars evidently became suspicious and failed to call for them at the station.

HOSPITAL INVESTIGATING COMMITTEE HOLDING SESSIONS.

The committee appointed by the City Council to investigate the general management and condition of the Massie Hospital, are holding sessions in the Mayor's office, First National Bank building, from 9 to 12 and 2 to 5, Thursday, Friday and Saturday of this week. Those having complaints to make or improvements to suggest and those who wish to make any statements favorable to the hospital, are asked to come to the Mayor's office during those hours.

The committee must depend upon the co-operation of the public in order to make a fair investigation. The hospital can be benefited by talking to the committee and to no one else.

Y. M. C. A. PLANS GET-TOGETHER MEETING.

The men of the Y. M. C. A. dormitory are planning for a big stag and get-together on Tuesday night. Music and games are being arranged for by the committee. The features of the program attracting the most attention among the men themselves are the stunts to be put on by the men. The committee to give a prize to one putting on the best stunt. A booby prize also will be given for the man at the other end of the line. Some of the best "judicial" talent of the county has agreed to act as judges in the contest.

Following the "obituary" to Mr. Day, Mr. W. O. Hinton, president of the association, will make a short speech—the "eats."

Messrs. Griffin, Williamson and Bratton are on the main committee, and Messrs. Wadell, Day and Y. H. Harrison have charge of the performing animals.

STREET CONSTRUCTION PROCEEDING.

The work of putting down the new concrete street on Main from Fourteenth street to Twentieth, which was begun some days ago by the contractors, is proceeding rapidly. The work is being done partly at night, the city's road roller going over the work and putting on the finishing touches the following day. It is said that the work will be completed in time to accommodate the heavy traffic expected on Main street when the tobacco warehouses open for the season. This street has been in bad condition for some time.

BREAKS ARM.

While assisting in housing a crop of tobacco near North Middletown, Saturday, James Kennedy, a farmer of the precinct, fell from a tier rail to the ground, breaking his arm. He was removed to his home, where the broken member was given medical attention.

BOURBON FARMING CONDITIONS.

Bourbon county farmers are very busy with fall plowing, and the ground is working nicely, due to being without much moisture. Tobacco is going into the barns fast. The farmers are greatly encouraged over the report that good tobacco is selling on the Carolina markets as high as a year ago. There is much late tobacco in the fields throughout the county that is ripening slowly. The usual apprehension of an early frost still exists, and the growers are rushing the cutting and housing of their crops.

The corn is maturing rapidly and some of the early planting has been cut. Kershaws and pumpkins are on the market. The seedling of rye and barley is in progress for early grazing. The lack of green grass in the pastures has caused the supply of milk and cream to diminish, with a corresponding advance in prices of the cream.

The livestock market is still in an unsettled condition, and the farmers are uncertain what to do for next year. It has been customary for the livestock men to lay in their supply of stockers, but the farmers are loath to buy now and are holding off the market. The decline in cattle prices has affected the feeder as well as the finished steers.

Pastures are drying up for lack of rain, and the fall grazing, in consequence, will be rather light. Many farmers are forced to haul water for their stock a considerable distance, the streams and ponds being dry in many sections. Gardens have been badly crippled by the drought, and vegetables are scarce and high in price. The late potato crop, like the first one, is now reported to be almost a failure due to the dry weather. All late vegetables have suffered greatly.

The land boom seems to be holding up well. Sales of farms and tracts are of frequent occurrence in the county and high prices rule. Some farmers are becoming pessimistic about high land prices and the holding off purchasing land, fearing a return of war prices for the produce of the farm within a short time.

BIG SNAKE CAPTURED.

A big snake which escaped from the carnival grounds last Saturday night, made its way up Parrish avenue and found a home under the front steps at the residence of Mr. Max Metzger. The presence of the reptile created a panic in the neighborhood until it was hunted out and killed by Mr. Pete Terry. The honor of killing the snake was afforded to a Link avenue girl, who armed herself with a hoe, bravely proceeded to the spot—and then called Mr. Terry to carry out her contract.

ALL WASTED.

A young man in charge of a newly platted realty tract, upon which the only building was the office of the company, upon seeing the first person to enter the door, hastily took down the telephone receiver and commenced:

"Yes, sir, I think we agree on those terms. Thirty lots in one parcel and twenty in another. Yes, sir; the price is satisfactory—$30,000 at the transfer and the remainder in sixty days. Did you say I could meet you in the morning at 9 o'clock and receive your check for $10,000 as the initial payment? Very well, sir."

Hanging up the receiver, this busy person turned to the man who had entered the office.

"Naw, not a thing," returned the visitor. "I have just come to connect up yer telephone, that's all."

PLAGUE OF MOSQUITOES.

A plague of mosquitoes has swooped down on Paris. Complaints are made from different sections of the city regarding the visitations of the pests. Their appearance is probably due to the dry weather. People should examine their premises and empty all buckets, rain barrels or old cans or other receptacles containing stagnant water. Many claim the mosquitoes are of a different variety than those of former years, in that they do not seem to "sing" as loud as usual. But the sting is just the same.

COUNTY STUDENTS TO PAY TUITION IN CITY SCHOOLS

Pupils who have completed the eighth grade in the rural schools must attend the county high schools if they desire free tuition. Under the law they cannot enter city high schools without paying tuition.

This opinion was given County School Superintendent L. D. Stucker by Attorney General Charles Morris. The Attorney General holds that the county has made arrangements for two years of high school, and as a result is not in a position to pay tuition of pupils who desire to enter city high schools.

For Autumn Wear

The Suits

Are sufficient unto themselves. "They have the Wintry look wanted in a suit," is the compliment many women pay them.

The Coats

The Dresses

The Skirts

A varied showing in serges and soft silks with the latest trimmings. Others are of plaid velours, some being in accordion pleated models. You can easily find your skirt here.

The Waists

The beauty of design is styled into every blouse and waist we are showing during our opening. Some have buttons while others are made to slip over the head, drawing back into a softly folded sash that ties in the back.

The Hosiery

The fine weave of these hose reminds you of glove silk and their shapeliness lend a touch of completeness to the smart frock or gown.

The Millinery

Our millinery possesses an effectiveness and novelty in the use of hand-work on the many models. Others are trimmed in new and fascinating ways that appeal to the misses and the matrons.

FOX HUNT TO BE AT CRAB ORCHARD IN NOVEMBER

The new proprietors of the Crab Orchard Springs have just completed arrangements with the Fox Hunters' Association of America to hold their annual meet at the famous old hostelry November 10-14.

There will be 200 delegates present. As an added attraction it is planned to have the oldest white man in the country, John Shell, to be the guest of the occasion. It is particularly appropriate that the national gathering should be held at Crab Orchard, as it was the first lodge in Kentucky and lovers of this sport were wont to assemble there in years gone by.

Our idea of a catastrophe is when a bride begins housekeeping with the idea of raising flowers and chickens and ends by raising Cain and Court proceedings.

"TRUE AMERICANISM"

Under the above head Mr. Frederick Wallis, formerly of Paris, now Fourth Deputy Police Commissioner of New York City, contributes the following to a recent edition of The New York Evening Mail:

"One of the most important questions of the day, and perhaps the most important one, is the solving of the several interpretations of Americanism. There are many views in regard to this vital matter, and it is right that the subject should be given a prominent place in each daily resume of the rapid growth and spiritual expansion of this country. The United States is still in the formative state and must ever be so, for we are constantly advancing to the better things, intellectually and patriotically.

"The German spirit is still abroad and must be met during the trying intervals of the reconstruction time. True Americanization efforts lie chiefly in the attitude of our public men. The cities are the nerve centers of the country. The cities are the moral integrity, the fortresses of material and spiritual activity and in order to keep these densely populated areas clean and effective centers we must have men of the highest purpose, of the strongest possible character, at the helm.

"Business men are too apt to delegate their political powers to irresponsible persons. One great force in the broad scheme of Americanism is the vote. Every American by birthright is a politician in the higher sense and carries his part of the responsibility of good government. He should exercise his rights of suffrage and should realize that in doing so he is but fulfilling his duty to God and his country. If our American constitution is to be sacredly guarded and the principles of our government in both city and nation are to prevail and our free institutions be maintained, and if truth and loyalty are to touch the ballot and the voter, making elections clean and officials honest, we must have the earnest and fearless support of our best citizens.

"After all, there can be but one true interpretation of Americanism—the standing for the ideals of the country and the living up to these ideals in all dealings with our fellow countrymen. By such a course we cast our influence on the side that is bound to bring results and add to the harmonizing plans of the greatest republic the world has ever seen. With every American asserting himself along the lines of just and enlightened propaganda, all discordant elements must yield and a more settled and logical public opinion will become apparent.

"It is every American's duty to do his share in effecting general unity in all matters of patriotism, and in all essentials that directly bear upon the peace, security and well being of this country. If we place men of the highest character and qualifications at the head of affairs we shall have little to regret in the next decade or succeeding decades, no matter how great an influx of immigration we are called upon to confront. "The United States has hitherto absorbed immigration units in a most satisfactory manner, and with the legislation now being planned the country will be able to meet the new conditions.

"We have nothing to fear from foreign elements so long as the intellectual, patriotic and spiritual sentiments of the country do not deteriorate. Indeed, on the other hand, a new Americanism, baptized in the blood of a new and dedicated manhood, has been born, and America is moving toward social, political and economic conditions that are prophetic of a nobler day. This government is built upon manhood, and only by manhood can it be preserved and its glory perpetuated."

JUST WHAT SHE NEEDED.

"I used a bottle of Chamberlain's Tablets some time ago and they proved to be just what I needed," writes Mrs. Volta Bankson, Chillicothe, Mo. "They not only relieved me of indigestion, but toned up my liver and rid me of backache and dizziness that I had been subject to for some time. They did me a world of good and I will always speak a good word for them."

STATE ASKS GOVERNMENT HELP AGAINST PROFITEERING

So serious has the question of profiteering become in this State that the Kentucky High Cost of Living Commission, which has been investigating conditions for several weeks decided to send two of its representatives to Washington to confer with Federal authorities.

Alfred Brandies, State Secretary of the Commission, and Colonel H. H. Callahan were chosen for the mission. They will confer with C. B. Ames, Assistant United States Attorney General, who has been co-operating with State and local officials in bringing adjustment of prices.

Profiteering in rents, food and clothing in Louisville and the other larger cities of the State will be the special targets for attack. It is confidently expected by members of the commission that Federal prosecution will be instituted immediately following the Washington conference.

YOUR RED CROSS IS STILL VERY BUSY

Read What Your Dollar Is Doing

In the membership drive during September the Lake Division of the Red Cross wants to enroll 200,000 school children and more, to help the Greatest Mother in the World. Red Cross Juniors have an extensive after-war work to carry out.

Junior Membership is only 25 cents. It is taken out in school-room units so that every school child can be a member of the Junior Red Cross. A world of opportunity for helping other children all over the world is open to Red Cross Juniors.

Even as far away as Hawaii children busy in school all day sell coffee by lantern light at night to earn money for their Junior Red Cross. The National Children's Fund to which is contributed Junior Membership fees has a two-fold purpose.

With it, relief is furnished to suffering children throughout the world and at home community activities expressing the spirit of the American Red Cross are fostered. In a word the Junior Red Cross aims to establish international understanding and good will among all children; to provide motives for purposeful and useful school activities and to inculcate ideals and habits of service.

HOW TO JOIN THE RED CROSS JUNIORS

UPON application for memberships schools are placed on the department of Junior Membership mailing list at Lake Division headquarters to receive the National bulletin issued monthly by the Department of Junior Membership at Washington.

Upon payment of membership fees schools receive certificates or renewal cards which are their receipts for membership fees for the current year.

Service to others is the appeal of the Junior Red Cross today. The public school working with the Red Cross is the natural agency for spreading a new consciousness of the humanitarian obligation of men and nations toward each other.

Two phases of education present themselves in the Junior Red Cross after-war program. One is the providing of scholarship for children of disabled soldiers, sailors and marines who wish to attend schools of the Federal Board for Vocational Education.

The purpose of the scholarship is to furnish a sum of money to keep children from fourteen to sixteen years old out of industry for a few years longer than family finances permit and to make it possible for them to have added vocational training to fit them for self-support.

In this the Red Cross will be co-operating with the Vocational Board which has an extensive program well under way for providing training for disabled service men.

The other educational aim of the Junior Red Cross is to develop among children of all nations understanding of social, industrial and commercial conditions as they exist and will develop in the future.

To meet these needs the Red Cross has compiled a series of graded lessons which teachers may present to their pupils in the schools. These deal with geography, customs, occupations and other affairs peculiar to each country, and are prepared to give a basic understanding of the world as it is in process of change today.

School teachers who have completed the standard Red Cross First Aid course and hold a certificate from National Headquarters will be qualified to give this instruction in their schools this fall.

NOTED CITIZENS ENDORSE JUNIOR PEACE PROGRAM

Governor JAMES M. COX of Ohio says concerning the new program: "The purpose and plan of the Junior Red Cross appeals to me greatly. Development of international understanding and good will can be given no place in a comparable measure with the undertaking among children."

"I have examined your plans with interest," writes Governor J. P. Goodrich of Indiana, "and it gives me pleasure, indeed, to endorse the proposed work of our school children to assist in relieving suffering in Europe."

V. O. Gilbert, State Superintendent of Schools for Kentucky, endorses the plan as being worth while from the material side but of greatest value from its educational side in the development of character.

CONSIDERING LOCATING MONASTERY IN STATE.

E. A. Waters, of the Big Four railroad, Cincinnati, paid Hon. J. A. Sullivan a visit at Richmond, recently, coming to consult with him concerning the location of a Catholic monastery in the mountains of Eastern Kentucky, to be founded by Baltimore capitalists who have spent many million dollars in the improvement and development of the Eastern Kentucky mountains. Mr. Sullivan says that the monastery should not be simply religious, but should be the head and center of schools or colleges in agriculture, carpentry, forestry, coal and oil mining and other practical pursuits, as well as all sciences and languages, ancient and modern. He also says that the monks should be able to talk English well and prefers them to come from the following nations and in this order: Ireland, Scotland, Wales, England, France, Belgium or Italy, and many native born Americans should head many of the departments.

CROP REPORT.

The drouth has cut down crop conditions generally.

Corn, however, made an improvement in August and the general condition shows at 85 per cent, which is better than last month's report indicated. Corn yield per acre as estimated under present conditions will be 23 bushels as a State average, which would give something over 77,000,000 bushels production from the State this year. By sections the average yield runs from 16 to 32 bushels, according to the locality, which had not the most seasonable weather conditions.

Condition of burley tobacco is given at 70 per cent, which is not as good as last month's report, and dark tobacco is given at 77 per cent. The tobacco crop is very uneven, and the outlook is discouraging. Much tobacco is being cut early, owing to the extreme dry conditions prevailing. Less than 42 per cent acreage of hemp is given, while condition is 78 per cent. This will mean an exceptionally small output.

Cow peas acreage is 76 per cent of the normal crop, and condition is 79 per cent.

VOLUNTEERS NEEDED TO LAUNCH THIRD ROLL CALL

ONE million volunteers to help in the work connected with the Third Red Cross Call, November 3-11, in the appeal issued by the National Headquarters of the organization.

Each local Red Cross chapter is interested in enrolling workers in the community who will make this Roll Call an overwhelming success.

The November campaign has two purposes—to secure for 1920 as nearly universal membership as possible, and to obtain $15,000,000 for the completion of relief work abroad, undertaken during the war.

State campaign managers for the Lake Division of the American Red Cross have been appointed by MacKenzie R. Todd, campaign manager for the division. R. F. Grant is manager for Ohio, Clarence Stanley for Indiana and John R. Downing for Kentucky.

Under the leadership of these men the Lake Division, comprising these three states, hopes to equal its previous records. In the last War Fund Drive the division over-subscribed its quota of $9,400,000 by almost $4,500,000. In the first Roll Call these states were the first to go over their quota. In the second Roll Call, in spite of the influenza epidemic, the Lake Division managed to enroll over 2,235,000 new members.

During the war there were two annual Red Cross campaigns, the War Fund Drive and the Christmas Roll Call for membership. The November campaign will be the only one this year, and in succeeding years there will be only the annual Roll Call.

In naming this sum of $15,000,000, the Red Cross has tried to determine the smallest amount which will enable it to round out its work. It is believed that the end of our foreign obligations is in sight and, accordingly, the Red Cross is turning its chief attention and energy to the development of a clearly defined home program, which already includes systematic preparedness for disaster relief, a widespread nursing plan, continuing Home Service operations, First Aid instruction, and a Junior Red Cross program, all of which depend for their success upon large and vigorous chapters. For these reasons, the enrollment of members is the chief purpose of the November campaign.

It is the primary ambition of the American Red Cross to be of service to Americans.

WHY DOES THE AMERICAN RED CROSS NEED FUNDS?

Because—The Red Cross cannot withdraw the helping hand extended to soldiers, sailors, and marines until every one of them is at home—at work again, or receiving medical care.

Because—The medical and surgical supplies of the American Expeditionary Forces made available for use by the Red Cross by a recent act of Congress must be distributed and administered.

Because—The devastated countries of Europe cannot meet, with their own resources, the problems of sickness and disease among grown people and children, and the building up of man power.

Because—to be of service to Americans, the American Red Cross is preparing to launch its peace program of continued Home Service, First Aid, Public Health Nursing, and extended Junior Red Cross activities.

INSURANCE COMPANIES MAY PRESENT CLAIMS AT CAPITAL

Notices have been set by N. O. Gray, to C. F. Thomas, insurance commissioner and statutory agent for more than 100 fire insurance companies operating in this State and the Kentucky Actuarial Bureau of a meeting to be held in Frankfort, September 19. The companies must show cause why the ten per cent surcharge tax which has been in effect since July, 1918, should not be lifted. Superintendent Gray is looking into charges of discrimination made during the raters in Kentucky and this question will also be up at the conference.

RED CROSS ANNOUNCES PUBLIC HEALTH PROGRAM

A N outline of the peace time program of the American Red Cross has been given, following the announcement of the Third Red Cross Roll Call, November 3-11, for members and a fund of $15,000,000.

Foremost will be the nation-wide activity for the promotion of public health, and hand in hand with this crusade will go a vigorous campaign for the extension of the country's nursing resources.

In its public health campaign the American Red Cross will make an effort to reduce the high mortality rate and to improve general health conditions. Red Cross public health nurses will be assigned to as many small communities as possible, thus extending to the rural population the bedside nursing, school inspection, classes in hygiene and home nursing that have been so effective in cities.

In this connection it is planned to offer to every woman in America instruction in home sanitation, hygiene, care of the sick and dietetics, thus providing first-hand knowledge of how to keep the family well and what to do where illness or accident cannot be avoided. These courses are now being introduced into the public schools and colleges, and are offered to department store employees, factory operatives, girl scouts, nurse maids and others, fitting them to help combat infant and child mortality, malnutrition, unsanitary living conditions, preventable disease and epidemics in their own home.

The 7,000 public health nurses in the United States are far too few to meet the ever increasing demands for their services, and funds are needed for the establishment of scholarships for the training of nurses for this highly specialized work.

MILLERSBURG

DEATHS.

PIPER.

The body of William Piper, who died in Buffalo, New York, after a short illness, was brought to Millersburg, Friday afternoon, and interred on the family lot, with services held at the grave.

Mr. Piper was a son of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Piper, former residents of Millersburg. He was born and reared in Millersburg, but moved to Buffalo, New York, several years ago. He is survived by two brothers, Hyman Piper, of New York; Volney Piper, of Kansas City, Mo.; two sisters, Mrs. Lutie Piper Miller, of California; Mrs. Henry Piper Andrews, Baltimore, Md. He was a nephew of Mrs. C. W. Corrington, of Millersburg.

—Mrs. R. C. Bonar and daughter, Miss Louise, are visiting relatives in Mayville.

—Mr. R. M. Caldwell and family were guests Friday of Mrs. Bayles DeBell, at Ewing.

—Miss Mabel Metcalfe has returned from a visit to her aunt, Mrs. A. C. Strode, in Chester, Montana.

—Rev. J. D. Redd and Rev. J. W. Gardner filled their new appointment at Harrodsburg and Versailles, Sunday.

—Rev. and Mrs. Cox, guests at the home of Mrs. Henry Patterson, have returned to their home in Wilmore.

—The M. M. I. now has an enrollment of 106 students. There are more than eighty in the boarding department.

—Mrs. J. D. Calhoun and daughter, Miss Elizabeth Calhoun, have returned after a week's visit to Mrs. Chas. Jones, at Salt Lick.

—Rev. J. W. Gardner, former pastor of the Millersburg church, assumed his new duties Sunday as pastor of the Methodist church at Versailles.

—Mrs. D. Sheard and son, of Easton, Kansas, are guests of relatives in this city. Mrs. Sheard was formerly Miss Mayme Conway, a former resident of Millersburg.

—Miss Katherine Spencer, of Lexington, has entered Millersburg College as a student. Another new arrival as a student at the College is Miss Lois Ingels, of Eminence.

—Our little city was startled about eleven-thirty Thursday evening by an alarm of fire, which was found to be in the home of Mr. G. W. Bramlette. When the fire was first discovered by two colored women, the roof of the residence was in flames. The family were not aroused, until after this. The voluntary fire department was called out and did heroic work. In a little while both engines were on the scene, and the fire was under control. However, this was not until after the interior of the building had been well destroyed, by fire and ruined by water.

The origin of the fire is unknown. When first discovered it was in the front of the building, near the roof. It is thought by many to be the work of either birds or mice, in depositing matches, where they afterward ignited. Mr. Bramlette carried $3,000 insurance on the property. The walls are in good condition, and the work of rebuilding will begin, as soon as the insurance company adjusts the loss. Mr. Bramlette and family have taken rooms temporarily in the home of Mr. David Cassidy.

STRUGGLING WOMAN SHARES INCOME WITH HER LORD.

From a sick woman who can never recover from tuberculosis has come a cash contribution to the Baptist 75 Million Campaign as reported by the general headquarters in Nashville.

"I have tuberculosis and do not expect to live long," she writes, "but my husband, whose income is but $1,000 a year, and I make a practice of tithing and greatly rejoice in giving the Lord at least one tenth. And I want before I die to have a share in the great 75 Million Campaign. As long as I live I am going to send in a part of my half of our salary to this purpose. The greatest joy I have is in deciding where I can place this money to do the most good in my Savior's cause."

MANURE

Mr. Farmer:

We are taking this means to advise you that you still have an opportunity of purchasing your manure at the old price. All orders received at this office for immediate shipment up until September 30th will be accepted at $2.50 per ton price f. o. b. Louisville.

Commencing October 1st we are forced to advance our prices to $3.00 per ton for shipment during October and November, and on December 1st to $3.50 per ton. We are so situated that we are not in a position to figure on any more manure for shipment any later than December and for this reason we are not quoting any price for later shipment than December.

Conditions are such now as to make it almost imperative for the wise farmer to purchase his requirements immediately to insure himself of his supply. The Government is fastly disposing of their animals and this naturally means a loss of manure, as if the animals are not there, naturally, we cannot get the manure.

Another very important feature is the fact that we are encountering severe difficulty in securing empty cars for loading. This is due to the shortage of coal cars. It is reasonable to assume that with a shortage of coal cars at this season of the year, that with the approach of Fall and Winter this shortage will become more acute, and for this reason we advise our customers and friends to not delay the purchase of their manure any longer.

We are now receiving the highest grade of manure we ever have had since we had this contract, and the Government is exercising particular care in picking out this manure, so that there is virtually no dirt in same whatsoever.

We will be glad, indeed to take any customer out to the Remount who will have occasion to come to Louisville and let him examine this manure before making shipment to him.

We also wish to call your attention to the straw manure that we are shipping from Camp Knox, Stithton, Kentucky. This manure is now becoming very much in demand by the gardeners, who utilize it for hot beds, and we have virtually sold up all our straw manure for the next five or six months. However, we still have a few open dates in the balance of this month and next month, which will enable us to accept business at $35.00 per car f. o. b. Stithton. This manure contains approximately 20 to 25% straw in volume and is absolutely free from foreign matter.

In conclusion, we wish to state that we have been very fortunate in having extremely good weather, which has enabled the Government to work their corrals very carefully, and in this manner they are getting out a very high grade of manure, perfectly dry, which means that you are not paying one penny for any excessive moisture.

Prices

High grade short manure, free of all foreign matter, containing approximately 5% straw, per ton for September shipment. $2.50 f. o. b. Louisville

Long manure, free of all foreign matter, containing 20 to 25% straw in volume, per car. $35.00 f. o. b. Stithton

In the event we receive orders marked for immediate shipment and we are not in a position to ship it this month, you receive the benefit of the $2.50 price, but it is absolutely essential that we have your order this month for you to get this price.

SAVE MONEY. PROTECT YOURSELF. ORDER NOW.

Phone, wire or mail us your order and we will mail you properly filled contract for your signature. Terms cash, railroad weights to govern all settlements.

Freight from Stithton to Paris is $2.30 per ton.

SCHOOL ENROLLMENT COMPLETE.

Mobilization of the forces of education at Camp Paris High School in this city has practically been completed. The result is a fine body of young soldiers in the interest of better education, answering to the roll call to the number of 1,200 in the twelve grades of the school. This is said to be the largest attendance ever recorded at the opening day for the High School.

The High School alone reports a total of 200 students. This gives that department the largest number it has ever enrolled, and it is confidently expected in a few days this number will be largely increased by the addition of new pupils.

Only one addition has been made to the faculty, that being Miss Katherine Evans, a graduate of Bryn Mawr College, in Pennsylvania, who will have charge of the physical culture courses. Football practice has been started, the coaching being under the instruction of the Y. M. C. A. instructors. Robert Burnett, a former High School star, has received his discharge from the service, and will rejoin his former teammates on the football gridiron.

EXHIBIT WAS POPULAR.

The big display made by the College of Agriculture and the Experiment Station at the State Fair last week was a decided success from start to finish. It was bigger and better in every way than the one of last season. It also had more direct appeal to the public, as was shown by the interested people who visited and revisited the exhibit. It is evident that the public may expect a finer exhibit from season to season from these two most popular State Institutions.

BANKS HELP FARMERS

In certain sections of Kentucky the farmer is able to buy ground limestone even in ton lots at exceptionally low figures. This is made possible by wide-awake bankers who are buying limestone in carload lots so that the farmer may have it at the lowest possible price. Whenever bankers are pursuing this plan the farmers are certain to learn very rapidly the tremendous value of ground limestone even on their most fertile fields.
